

dressed for SUCCESS

yellow jersey overall nature valley grand prix leader

Hours. Minutes. Seconds. It's all about time. Each rider's cumulative time is tracked, plus a few time bonuses. The rider with the lowest total time is the Nature Valley Grand Prix leader.

orange jersey wheaties sprint competition

The sprint competition creates several mini-races inside the race. Sprint lines throughout the stages keep riders on their toes as they sprint for the lines to gain points towards the Wheaties sprint jersey.

polka dot jersey sport beans king/queen of the hills

The brutal climbs in some stages of the Nature Valley Grand Prix will separate the contenders from the pretenders. Riders earn points by being the first across the line on the toughest hills.

blue jersey top amateurs

Professionals and elite amateurs participate in the Nature Valley Grand Prix. The top amateur will be recognized with a blue jersey.

black jersey BMC most aggressive rider

This is the rider who has done the most to animate the race each day. Attacking, bridging, chasing, sprinting, this rider always seems to stirring things up at the center of the action.

white jersey boost best young rider

Young riders are the future of the sport. The best placed man under age 23 and the best-placed woman under age 26 will receive a white jersey.