

Go green

Hannah Bussey

AT last year's trade shows there was a definite trend towards green — green bikes, green clothing and even a few green parts — and we rather liked it.

Check out most cycling clothing brands' spring/summer collections and you'll see that it's all about bright and lime green. From full-on 'in your face' to more subtle accents, the colour is fast becoming our favourite.

Even the pros are into it — Liquigas started it, Movistar are embracing it and HTC-Highroad are giving an understated nod to it. Want to get in on the green action? Here's our favourite 11 for inspiration...
